

Tahoe Glypho Spray Alert

Spraying of the controversial synthetic herbicide glyphosate — a probable carcinogen per the World Health Organization — is happening at record levels in California's public forests, and the Forest Service has said that large-scale spraying in Tahoe forests could begin in less than two years.

Learn more, speak up, and stay aware:

TahoeSprayAlert.org

